
If I lived in C.A.S.S. accommodation who might I be sharing with?

By admin

Published: 7 Apr 2008 - 8:26am

We house lots of different people with a variety of backgrounds including offenders, homeless people and people at risk so you could be sharing with anyone of these people. What is common to everybody in C.A.S.S. accommodation is that for one reason or another they have been homeless. We ask all residents to respect the fact that other residents may be trying to deal with personal problems as well as using C.A.S.S. accommodation as a stepping stone to eventually finding their own accommodation.